DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Poppy S	7	Adapting well to a change in maths group and focusing hard on the work to be completed.	Mr Affram
Jake K	7	Jake volunteered to sit for an entire double lesson next to an EAL pupil to help them complete their work. He broke down all the vocabulary, helped them check their homework, used black and green pens to go through the answers. It was a lovely thing to do and I can't thank him enough for helping both myself and a fellow pupil.	Miss Bonneville
Mia B	7	Outstanding contribution and engagement in her science lessons. Well done Mia - Keep it up	Mrs Foster

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Alan J	7	Alan always attends his literacy intervention sessions with a smile and tries his best each and every time. Alan is striving to improve his literacy skills and will always contribute to class discussion. Keep up the good work, Alan!	Miss Hewitt
Lee H	7	Engagement, effort and workrate in Technology lessons have massively improved. Well done Lee!	Mr Hughes
Keira E	7	Consistently demonstrates the highest standards and attitude to learning in Spanish. Keira is always very well mannered and puts 100% effort into every lesson. Well done, Keira!	Mr Kenny
Joel O	7	For consistently producing outstanding pieces of work in History and for writing an excellent essay on the Peasants Revolt.	Miss West

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Libby S	8	Libby drew me an amazing picture of my dog, Rosie, who recently lost (part of an art project). It made my day and I could not wait to show it off to everyone! She is very talanted	Mrs Astbury
Libby S	8	Libby has created some outstanding drawings of staff pets. She is meticulous when adding details and the likeness to the photographs is amzing. Well doen Libby.	Miss Edwards
Harrison T	8	Harrison has been very engaged when learning about the slave trade. He has been completing work to a high standard and then also completing challenge tasks in lesson. He has made lots of progress in Y8	Mr Marsh

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Thomas B	8	Incredible focus and dedication in 2 lessons that I visited on Wednesday	Miss Tinsley
Lottie L	8	Working really hard in her science reciprocal reading	Mr Yates
Caleb H	8	Caleb started guitar lessons this week and has been so enthusiastic, coming back to practice at lunchtime and really engaging with what he has been taught.	Mrs Hannaford
Reece C	8	All round great student, always willing to help, always first to be ready to listen. Always has a great attitude, which was shown again this week	Mr McIntyre

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Matthew G	9	Matthew joined us on the trip to Wales last week. He was an absolute pleasure to spend time with, his manners are exceptional and he was a great support to others who were feeling a bit anxious about the activities. On the way home he led a sing along on the bus and kept us all entertained. He is a great ambassador for DTW!	Mrs Beale
Jayden C	9	Jayden has helped me this week to do a job on his own decision, he has been really helpful without being asked.	Mrs Hardy
Kian P	9	What a thoughtful young person! Kian has demonstrated such lovely qualities of a good human being this week, thank you for caring and looking after others. I am very proud of you! You should be very proud of yourself....keep it up!	Mrs Holmes

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Libby R	9	Libby is putting 100% effort into maths recently - everytime I have checked on Miss Hymers class Libby is head down, full concentration. Great effort.	Mr McLoughlin
Millie V	9	Millie is a very creative and talented artist. She shows resilience when perfecting her work and goes above and beyond every lesson.	Miss Edwards
Ayda W	9	Ayda doesn't always find science easy but she has developed her resilience over the past few weeks and this resulted in her achieving an outstanding score on her Forces key piece. She has worked tirelessly in lessons to close up her gaps and misconceptions and her hard work has been rewarded with an excellent result. Well done, Ayda.	Mrs Stemp

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Rebekah G	10	Rebekah has been working extremly hard in practical and theory food technology lessons. In her practical lessons Rebekka is working hard on developing her complex skills when creating dishes. Keep up the excellent work	Mrs Alyson
Paige B	10	Paige has recently returned to school after a lengthy absence. She has worked incredibly hard across all subjects in turnaround even though at times this has been difficult for her due to missed learning	Miss Douglas
Izzie L	10	Izzie has been trying really hard and contributing answers to class discussions. Well Done Izzie - Keep it up	Mrs Finnegan
Jake H	10	Jake has recently moved into my class, he has shown a really mature approach to his studies and has been helping another pupil who had missed part of the topic. He has also been very hardworking and respectful.	Miss Hymers

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Kaitlynn W	10	For excellence in her Phonics classes and for assisting other pupils (for whom English is their second language) with their words. She listens attentively and is a pleasure to have in class.	Mrs Tutron
Molly F	10	Molly has worked really well in Hair and Beauty. She has completed two tasks, of her assignment, and is helpful to others.	Mrs Denton
Maisie M	10	Impeccable manners and stellar work ethic are standard for Maisie however it was heart-warming to see Maisie going above and beyond to help EAL pupils with their written work. Maisie find speaking publicly difficult, especially those she doesn't know well, but still went above and beyond to help others after meeting and exceeding	Mr Horton

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Charlie H-J	11	When Charlie came onto the MUGA at dinnertime, he told Mr Herron that his Sports Studies lesson was very good. It was very kind and polite of Charlie and really lovely to hear.	Miss Bailey
Joseph M	11	Joe has been working really hard on his Biology paper two content, his revision and hard work is paying off as can be seen by his results this term	Mr Eastwood
Davis O	11	Davis produced and delivered a wonderfully thought provoking and detailed speech on the impact of social media. It was brilliantly researched and delivered with passion and enthusiasm. Well done!	Miss Fox
Harvey M	11	Harvey is working really hard in Business, answering questions and gaining feedback to improve his longer answer questions.	Mr Fuller

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Temi S	11	Temi's hard work in English and extra revision that he is doing at home is really starting to pay off with his outcomes.	Mr Green
Bobby J-C and Zac J	11	For helping another pupil without being asked and for just being so lovely and such gentlemen.
Rubie A	11	For proving that hard work and determination outside of the classroom ALWAYS pays off. Well done Rubie.	Mr McNally
David Y	11	Excellent effort in his studies and helping out his friends with theirs. As well as trying his best in lessons he is always polite and caring towards friends and staff.	Mr Nolan

DEAN TRUST Wigan

Pupil Of The Week Nominations

If you see these pupils around school congratulate them for their positive impact within school

Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
James D	11	James really stepped up this week in double history and despite the content of the lesson being difficult, didn't give up and even helped other pupils who were struggling with the content. I'm so proud!	Mrs Shaw
Ema C	11	Ema has gone above and beyond to ensure she is preparing effectively for her Maths GCSE's. She is always hardworking in class and with her homework and consistently puts 100% effort into everyting she does.	Mrs Ward
Rubie A	11	Rubie's effort in maths has been really impressive. She is working incredibly hard in lessons, during Above and Beyond and with her homework.	Mr Williams
Elise F-R	11	Pro-active towards her studies by getting extra exam papers to take home and complete.	Mr Barrow