Name	Year	Reason	Member of staff
Josh H	7	Always demonstrates outstanding conduct in lessons and got to show case his answers to the class after getting full marks in a key piece. Keep it up Josh!	Mr Barrow
Gracie B	7	Completing additional work to support her knowledge of atoms, elements and molecules	Mr Eastwood
Nathan B	7	Nathan is a consciencious young man with such nice manners, he is always respectful to staff and his peers. Nathan eagerly helped another student in Homework Club with their maths homework, taking time to explain. Thank you Nathan.	Mrs Hardy
Rosie T	7	For achieving the highest score on her atoms key piece. Outstanding achievement considering the calibre of many in the class. Well done Rosie!	Mr McNally

Alfie H	8	I've run out of rewards for Alfie - he's a star every lesson and has got more positive phone calls, praise postcards and subject awards than I can keep track of. He completes all of his work independently (he even asks to do the I do/ we do on his own) and his enthusiasm is infectious for the rest of the class!	Miss Bonneville
Gracie-Mai J-B	8	Grace-Mai often chooses to do the right thing whether she is told to or not and it is great to see. I've seen her hop off her bike when she arrives at the foot path, return a pupils misplaced item and hold doors for people unprompted. It is great to see a young pupil being so considerate of others.	Mr Affram
Hunter H-M	8	Hunter always tries his best consistently in his intervention sessions and is a fantastic role model for other pupils. Keep up the good work, Hunter!	Miss Hewitt
